Please Print Clearly / Provide All Information

Thank you for showing an interest in applying for a position with Canebridge International (CIC). CIC is the provider of Security at this location. There will be several steps in the Application process which include, but are not necessarily limited to: a Drivers License Check, a seven (7) year Criminal Records Check by county of residence, Credit Check, Employment History Investigation, a Drug Screen, proof of High School or Equivalency completion. The reporting agency that provides CIC with investigative consumer reports is: S2VERIFY, 912 Holcome Bridge, Suite 303, Roswell, Georgia 30076; 888-894-7716. Investigative consumer reports are available for inspection and review by the consumer as required by law.

Any offer of employment is contingent upon the successful completion of this process.

If you are hired, two original forms of identification are required to complete the processing of the federally required I-9 form. A Passport, Birth Certificate, Drivers' License or Social Security Card are a few examples of acceptable forms of identification. If you decide to proceed with the Application process, please complete this form as acknowledgement of receiving this statement. You are required to list all personal residences, including Military and Education, for the past seven (7) years.

Completion of this form or participation in the Application process does not construe in any way an Employment Agreement or a position with CIC.

CIC Employment Records including consumer reports of investigative consumer reports are subject to inspection and review by appropriate management officials and designated third party representatives. CIC reserves the right to conduct subsequent investigations, as listed above, during the course of an employee's tenure.

I hereby authorize without reservation, any party or agency contacted by CIC to furnish the above information. I further authorize ongoing procurement of the above mentioned reports at any time during my employment if hired.
